

Japan's Emperor proclaimed his ascension to the throne.

Japan's 126th Emperor, Naruhito, proclaimed his enthronement to the world at the Sokui no Rei - or the Ceremony of Accession - on October 22, 2019. He pledged to serve as a symbol of the State and of the unity of the people in Japan.

The most important duties of the Emperor are to always think of and pray for the people with deep respect and love as the successive Emperors did.

About 2,000 guests including members of royal families, heads of state and other dignitaries from more than 180 countries and international organization attended the ceremony.

Imperial banquet

The menu for the around 450 guests featured grilled young seabream, salt steamed abalone, a soup of Japanese spiny lobster, "matsutake" mushrooms, etc.

For guests unfamiliar with Japanese cuisine, Western dishes such as beef and asparagus rolls were included.

In consideration of guests from diverse backgrounds, halal dishes and vegetarian dishes were also prepared.
