

Tiffin Colonial Style Lunch

We went to Kota Kinabalu in Borneo, Malaysia, some years ago. We visited a beautiful mosque, night markets, Mount Kinabalu, Kinabalu National park and other places there. We also took a scenic train ride.

The North Borneo Railway provides a half-day outing in a retro styled railway carriage pulled by a classic steam locomotive. The carriages are refurbished with vintage seat upholstery.

The tour includes a continental breakfast and a tiffin colonial style lunch. Firstly, we had breakfast:

assorted danish pastries, croissant, fruits preserves, coffee and tea. During the tour, we disembarked for a quick look at a temple and local shops.

On the way back, a colonial inspired tiffin lunch was served: chicken satay, fried spiced mackerel fillet, cucumber & pineapple salad, mixed vegetables with prawn meat, chicken biryani rice, fruits, coffee and tea.

The scenery along the railroad tracks was beautiful and the food was good. We enjoyed this ride very much!

Singapore Sling

On our way back to Osaka from Kota Kinabalu, we had several hours for transit in Singapore.

That allowed us to go out of the airport and stroll about the town.

After sightseeing, we went to Long Bar in Raffles Hotel and had Singapore Sling which is regarded as the national drink created by Raffles' bartender in 1915.

It is a gin-based cocktail which contains pineapple juice, lime juice, curaçao and Bénédictine. We enjoyed the iconic drink and the atmosphere of the historic Long Bar.
